Actual training times & costs will vary based on a person's ability and consistency in flight training. This quote is based on TC minimums for VFR OTT with an emphasis on dual instrument instruction in the aircraft rather than on a simulator.

This rating allows you to use your licence over a layer of cloud en-route to your destination, provided your origin and destination remain in visual meteorological conditions.

Experience accumulated in obtaining a VFR-OTT rating can be credited to the issue of a Commercial Pilot Licence. A person who holds a commercial pilot licence or instrument rating is able to exercise the privileges of a VFR-OTT rating without further training.

Courses may be paid as you go or by prepaid deposit. A refund will be given for unused deposits if the student withdraws from the training.

Effective February 1, 2023.
